

Auto Assembly 2012 Fan Sales Table

Updated: 23rd July 2012

Got any unwanted items for sale? Why not bring them along to Auto Assembly 2012 to make some extra cash to spend on the Dealers Tables?

Selling Your Items

Simply bring the items you want to sell along to the convention with two copies of the completed submission form (one for us, one for you) once you've collected your passes. We'll then go through your items with you and label them with the price and identification numbers prior to putting them on the table. You must keep your copy of the form safe as it is your proof of ownership of your items.

For loose toys / spare parts, these MUST be bagged and clearly labeled to ensure that all the parts / instructions stay together. Comics must also be bagged prior to dropping off at the table and labeled clearly.

We will keep track of all sales for you automatically and you can check back at any time on the progress of your sales. You can claim the proceeds of your sales or withdraw your items from the table at any time. There is a 10% sales commission which will go toward running the convention.

We will accept Non-Transformer items, but priority will be given to Transformers if the display space is limited. Normal convention rules apply for trading so knock-offs are not accepted, nor are pirate DVDs / CDs containing comic scans or non-Region 2 DVDs. If in doubt, please ask one of our team.

Completing the Form

All you need to do is save a copy of the form attached to this e-mail, fill in the item details (nothing in-depth, just enough to identify the item – i.e. "2007 Movie Deluxe Bumblebee") and price on your computer - the commission will be calculated automatically and we'll fill in the rest – print two copies and bring them in with your items.

Unclaimed Items / Payments

All unsold items must be collected by the end of the convention at 18:00 on Sunday afternoon. Ownership of any unclaimed items will be transferred to the convention. Also, payments not claimed by 18:00 on Sunday afternoon will be forfeit and retained by the convention.

Disclaimer

Auto Assembly can not be held responsible for the condition of items sold on the Fan Sales Table. All items are sold as seen unless described otherwise.

The convention can not be held liable for items that are lost, stolen or damaged. By submitting your items for sale, you understand that you are doing so at your own risk and agree to the terms in this document and that a percentage of the final selling price will go to the convention.

Reservations

Although we have accepted reservations in previous years, due to both numerous problems with items not being claimed, brought in, or accidentally sold, as well as the changes to the submission procedure, we will no longer be operating a reservation system.
